

Growth Chart for Girls with Turner syndrome (0-20yrs)

L /
E H
N E
G I
T G
H H
T
(cm)

This Turner Growth Chart is constructed using the LMS method after converting the distribution of heights and weights at each age into a normal distribution. The standard deviation (SD) represents the Z score. The thin lines represent the standard growth curves for girls based on data from the 2000 Annual Report of School Health Statistics.

Source: T Isojima, S Yokoya, J Ito, Y Naiki, R Horikawa, T Tanaka Clin Pediatr Endocrinol 19:69-82, 2010

© The Japanese Society for Pediatric Endocrinology